Your Excellency,

I most-humbly beg Yr Excy to Kindly hear my appeal, & to be pleased to furth my Cause, in granting me my humble request-

I beg to state that we orphan children of the Late Mr Chinnappa, do not own a house, the whole of my father's property being entirely taken away by the Bank, we were left-homeless, to occupy a Rent-House, where we pay a Heavy Rent, and this too from a Small Salary of Mine, on which a whole family is dependant, ten bro's & sisters

I beg to state that we own a piece of land in Gutta-halli, and that I have appealed to the Inspector-Genl of Educn through my Superior, to grant me the Loan for Build-ing Houses. on My pay for two years, or on one years pay-

But I beg to state that I need an answer, that I should ask only for 6 mths pay, which will be 300 Rs only as Your Excy Knows that we are a large family, & that this amount will be insufficient even for the walls of a Humble Cottage or a room. I at-once have thought to appeal to Your Excy, & beg you to Sanction for at-least one years pay which will be 600 Rs, as a Special favour, Considering that - we girls are helpless, having no Elders + also our Pecuniary Circumstances - Your Excy will be pleased to hear our Humble Request, + Sympathize with us as we are the Children of a Honest - Man, who Served the Departt for 40 years, + did not even get any Remuneration from Govt for his large family of girls + boys — I beg to state that - until Yr Excy Commands us, we will not - appeal again, + will obidiently wait upon Your Excy's Kindness to us Your humble Subjects. We hear Your Excy that - they are giving away large Sums of Money, + that there it will be speedily disposed of, if - we do not - appeal for it quickly —

I beg to remain
Your Excellency's
Humble Servant -
